Las Vegas, NV (PRWEB) July 1, 2009 – Las Vegas lawyer Aaron D. Lovaas has been named by the highly regarded Mountain States Super Lawyers magazine as one of the top business litigators under 40 in the state of Nevada for 2009. This is Lovaas's second consecutive selection to the Rising Stars edition. Lovaas will appear in the next Rising Stars edition of the magazine, which is distributed throughout all 50 states and reaches a readership of over 13 million people. Membership in the 2009 Rising Stars edition of Mountain States Super Lawyers is limited to only 2.5% of the lawyers in those states. Lovaas was selected through a rigorous process including peer nomination, staff research and recommendation, and an examination of his unblemished record of practice for the past fourteen (14) years.

Lovaas and his partner, Kristan Lehtinen, are the principals of the highly respected, Las Vegas based, international business law firm of Lovaas & Lehtinen, P.C. Prior to the formation of Lovaas & Lehtinen, P.C., Lovaas was a shareholder with the firm of Shimon & Lovaas, A Professional Corporation for four (4) years, and a partner with the large Las Vegas law firm of Alverson, Taylor, Mortensen, Nelson & Sanders, prior to that. As a principal of Lovaas & Lehtinen, P.C., Lovaas represents a robust group of business clients locally, nationally and internationally, drawing upon the niche business law practice that he has developed during his career.

"I am honored to even be profiled in the Rising Stars edition of Mountain States Super Lawyers for a second consecutive year," states Lovaas. "The attorneys from Nevada who have been selected in prior years are superb practitioners and I am proud to be in their company. I am also very pleased and excited at the selection of my law partner, Kristan Lehtinen, to the Rising Stars edition of Mountain States Super Lawyers as well."

Lovaas and the firm focus their practice on every aspect of business litigation and continually expand their transactional practice as well. Lovaas, who also holds a Master's in Business Administration, routinely represents clients in matters involving the formation and maintenance of business entity ventures, business and ownership transition planning, as well as strategic planning with clients with the goal of avoiding future controversies, litigation and other legal challenges. Lovaas represents a diverse group of clients locally, nationally and internationally, ranging from construction companies to nightclubs; Fortune 500 companies to small business owners and individuals from all walks of life.

Lovaas is active in the Business Law and Litigation Sections of the American Bar Association. Lovaas is also an active member of Las Vegas' Sin City Chamber of
