Nevada based business law firm and LawPact member, Lovaas & Lehtinen, P.C. was named the host firm for LawPact's Fall Conference set for November, 2010. LawPact is an international association and network of independent business law firms pursuing excellence in client services, firm management, and the application of evolving technologies to serve global clients' needs. LawPact members generally meet twice a year at Spring and Fall member conferences, which provide state of the art ideas regarding management, operation, and client services for member firms.

The LawPact international network complements and strengthens Lovaas & Lehtinen, P.C.'s current global partnership ties already fostered and developed with over twenty-five countries. Such a network provides Lovaas & Lehtinen, P.C.'s local, national, and international clients a depth of support for their varying legal interests around the world.

Lovaas & Lehtinen, P.C. is thrilled to host this prestigious international association's Fall 2010 Conference. Aaron Lovaas, a partner with Lovaas & Lehtinen, P.C. observed, "I am genuinely excited at the prospect of sharing ideas and resources with attorneys from around the globe, and honored to be able to showcase Las Vegas as a member of the host firm for this important event." Kristan Lehtinen, also a partner with Lovaas & Lehtinen, P.C. stated, "I am ecstatic Lovaas & Lehtinen was chosen as the host firm for the 2010 Fall Conference. As an international city, Las Vegas, Nevada is the perfect venue to bring together our global law partners to effectuate overall goals of serving our clients' local and international business objectives." Lovaas & Lehtinen, P.C. will host over twenty-five member firms from the United States, along with seventeen from around the world, including firms from Europe, Canada, Mexico, Argentina, and Brazil. Their involvement will provide clients with a continued excellence in business related client services.

Lovaas holds leadership positions in the Business Law Section of the American Bar Association, and is also a member of the Business and Corporate Litigation Committee and Section of Litigation. Lovaas is also an active member of Las Vegas' Sin City Chamber of Commerce as well as a number of other professional organizations, frequently contributing articles for publication to those organizations' members.

Lehtinen is a member of both the International and Business Law Sections of the ABA including: Business and Corporate Litigation, Business Courts, Corporate Counseling and Litigation, International Litigation, and Partnerships and Alternative Business Entities; and also a member of the Clark County Bar and Sin City Chamber of Commerce. Lehtinen was the U.S.-Canada panelist on the American Bar Association Business Law Conference Cross-Border Negotiations panel presentation in 2009. Lehtinen was joined on that panel by legal counsel from Southeast Asia, Latin America and Europe. Lehtinen was recently unanimously voted to serve on the University of Nevada, Las Vegas Libraries Board of Advisors.

Lovaas & Lehtinen, P.C., focuses their local, national, and international business practice on every aspect of commercial litigation and transactional matters. The firm is client-centered, providing large firm style expertise and skill with small firm responsiveness and service. Lovaas and Lehtinen currently represent clients located in the United States, Italy, Russia, Australia, Ireland, and Canada.
